I have a letter from Mary Conner the one which the days she has kept the Rec of Mary she has written the one in our Anti slavery cause & the is going to don't have ability for the fair - It he can write as well these for to the writing for the of the one not

I enclose you my dollar for the Liberty Bell from Mrs Russell & Shaw - I have written to Mrs Longfellow to beg her husband to write & doubtless he will. I cannot write to Aunt Mary Patch or Mr William R. for I should have to ask it as a Personal favor & that I will never do - I have talked with her upon those subjects & I know she would do it only because she would not refuse me & I had rather give the money myself & know I should suffer in consequence - She has some stiff money about societies & all nature will not get it out of her head - She is kind to the blacks & hopes they will be freed but she is - a Quirist & we cannot change her now - I have no right to speak to Mr^w Patch upon the subject we are just upon such a footing as to make it beautiful or unpleasant

I will write something, although it may not be worth having for the Liberty Bell - & I am doing all I can for the fair, but I see no way to get money now, when I

Oh I shall not fail to do it - I am enough last winter to make me now I would do nothing more with ^{Phillips'}
~~then~~ She is generous as day light & he gives by rule - & the more you ask the less he'll give -

Susan has written to Mr. Johnson - I am obliged to spend a good deal for materials to set my hands to ~~work~~ for the Fair else I should ~~need~~ ^{need} you in some more money from my own purse now & I yet hope to have some more for you - I know how hard you must be pressed & wish I could do more than I do - I think Mary Gove would write me for the Liberty Bell but had better ask her than I - She is not very far this would - I am glad you have got something from Harriet - Did you get Emily Taylor's?
